Cancellation Policy. Cancellation deadline is six weeks before course commencement; final payment deadline is four weeks. Your deposit is none refundable. If you cancel before the six-week cancellation deadline we will transfer the deposit to a future course where possible. If you cancel after the six-week cancellation deadline but before the four-week final payment deadline and we cannot fill your place your deposit is forfeit. If we can fill your place and deliver the course we will transfer the deposit to a future course, where places exist or can be made. What if you need to cancel after paying the full amount? Your full payment is usually none refundable after the four-week deadline. At any stage you will automatically forfeit £50 as a cancellation fee. If we can fill the place or deliver the course without replacement persons, then we will credit the balance to a future course. If you have not cancelled before the four-week deadline and final payment has not been made, then the full amount is due, and we will invoice you for it and your deposit will be forfeit as an administration fee.

We are required to have a cancellation policy but remember, we want you on our fantastic courses, not losing money through cancellation!! Please contact us as soon as you think you have a difficulty, we may be able to help you without charging.
